

EGYPTⁱ

a) Laws governing clinical trials
- Resolution of the Minister of Health & Population No. 238/2003
b) Ad hoc provisions for paediatric trials
- Usually the father must give the consent. Assent is not required.
c) Ethics Committees / National Competent Authority
- Local ethics Committees - Ministry of Health (Competent Authority) - A special authorisation from the National Security Approval necessary to export biological samples
d) Paper or electronic application / existence of a national website Paper submission. No national databases.
e) Procedures for compiling the EU CTA form (e.g. from EudraCT or from the national database)
Not applicable.
f) Requested documents to be submitted
Not applicable.

SOURCES: <http://www.egnatcom.org.eg/en>

ⁱ This document has been prepared by TEDDY Network as part of its research activity. Information have been derived by questionnaires filled in by researchers and from official national databases where available. It does not replace the official data that can be accessed directly or are provided at the experimental site. The material cannot be distributed nor re-utilised without acquiring a specific preliminary consent from the Network.

TEDDY Network is coordinated by:

Consorzio per Valutazioni Biologiche e Farmacologiche
I-27100 PAVIA Via Luigi Porta 14 – Tel. +39 0382 25075
I-70122 BARI Corso Alcide De Gasperi 435 – Tel. +39 080 8641260
www.teddyyoung.net • teddynetwork@cvbf.net